Dear Mr. Landkamer:

I am answering your letters of March 25 and April 26 addressed to the University Librarian, Mr. Rutherford Rogers. Mr. Rogers retired in December 1984.

A History of Scroll and Key bears a copyright date of 1978. We are prohibited, therefore, from photocopying the entire work as you requested. I am, however, enclosing copies of the guides to the Henry Stimson papers and diaries which you purchased with your check for four dollars.

In response to your other requests, I am also enclosing a list of collections in Manuscripts and Archives which are available for microfilm purchase. The papers of Thomas Day Thacher, comprised of thirty-one linear feet, are described in a register of sixty-three pages. The register can be ordered for our minimum mail order charge of $12.00. Thomas Day Thacher is listed as a correspondent in the following groups of papers: the Charles M. Andrews Papers, the Williams Adams Delano Papers, the James Rockwell Sheffield Papers, the Walter Lippman Papers, and the Harold Phelps Stokes Papers. You are welcome to order photocopies of these finding aids as well at a charge of 5 cents per page. Please be advised, however, that the finding aids describe the overall arrangement and organization of the papers and do not contain descriptions of the contents of individual letters or other documents within the papers.

Orders for the Thacher register and microfilm may be placed directly with Manuscripts and Archives, Yale University Library, Box 1603A, Yale Station, New Haven, CT 06520.

Sincerely,

Jack A. Siggins
